It seems the form that should do this needs to include:

- An input box that includes the list of URLs
- An input for the interval
- Batch creation options:  Don't create if an input exists for the URL already

The title and stanza name need to be created on the fly, This can be done by parsing the URL and extracting domain name.

Can use this for defining the URLs: https://bootstrap-tagsinput.github.io/bootstrap-tagsinput/examples/bootstrap-2.3.2.html

Inputs are made by POSTing to http://127.0.0.1:8000/en-US/manager/website_monitoring/data/inputs/web_ping/_new

#6 - 07/19/2016 09:15 PM - Luke Murphey

Might want to lock out controls while inputs are being made.

Need to test creation of inputs stanza names while they are created so that collisions don't happen when the loop created a new stanza name that prevents another in the list from becoming a duplicate.

Might make sense to include a count of the inputs to be made.
