Description An extension of #417
Subtasks:
Task # 1297: Add API specifically for looking up wikipedia articles for works	Rejected
Task # 1298: Add ability to lookup wiki articles from the list page	Closed

History

#1 - 04/05/2016 02:27 AM - Luke Murphey

- Subject changed from Enhanced Wikipedia information to Improved Wikipedia information

Considering:

- Add the ability to declare a Wikipedia topic for a work and/or author
- Lookup on the work list (works, authors and editors)

#2 - 04/07/2016 05:58 PM - Luke Murphey

Thinking the re-direct table might be the best approach. It would be a simple table full of terms and would have an article associated with the term. A type or context field might make sense to include too.

#3 - 04/08/2016 04:31 PM - Luke Murphey

Re-direct table:

- Does not require adding several columns
- Can automatically re-direct lots of potential requests (not just ones for works)

New column:

- More obvious design

#4 - 04/20/2016 06:32 PM - Luke Murphey

- File work_overview_with_cover.png added

- File work_overview_with_cover.pxm added

Might want to include the book cover image:

The Life of Flavius Josephus

1st of 76 chapters (1%)

The family from which I am derived is not an ignominious one, but of a different origin, so with us to be of the sacerdotal dignity, is an indication of the splendour of our blood; for the children of Asamoneus, from whom we are descended, were high priests, and for a long time together. I will accordingly set down my progenitors in order. My grandfather's father was named Simon, with the addition of Psellus: he lived at the same time with that son of Simon the high priest, who first of all the high priests was named Hyrcanus. This Simon Psellus had nine sons, one of whom was Matthias, called Ephraim: he married the daughter of Jonathan the high priest, which Jonathan was the first of the sons of Asamoneus, who was high priest, and was the brother of Simon the high priest also. This Matthias had a son called Matthias Curtus, and that in the first year of the government of Hyrcanus: his son's name was Joseph, born in the ninth year of the reign of Alexandra: his son Matthias was born in the tenth year of the reign of Archelaus; as was I born to Matthias in the first year of the reign of Caligula Caesar. I have three sons: Hyrcanus, the eldest, was born in the fourth year of the reign of Vespasian, as was Justus born in the seventh, and Agrippa in the ninth. Thus have I set down the genealogy of my family as I have found it described in the public records, and so bid adieu to those who calumniate me [as of a lower original].

The Life of Flavius Josephus

The Life of (Flavius) Josephus (Greek: Ἰωσήφου βίος Iosepou bios), also called the "Life of Flavius Josephus", is an autobiographical text written by Josephus in approximately 94-99 CE – possibly as an appendix to his Antiquities of the Jews (cf. Life 430) – where the author for the most part re-visits the events of the War, apparently in response to allegations made against him by Justus of Tiberias (cf. Life 336).
