Description

There are several things that ought to be improved on or considered with current print support:

1. Footnotes are not included
2. The following is shown:
    1. progress bar
    2. breadcrumbs
    3. Link to source code, issues, etc
3. A link to the page is not included
4. A square appears at the right corner
5. Need a chapter descriptor (e.g. 1.4)
6. Full links are included when unnecessary
7. Add full URL so that users can find their way back to the page

Here is how epub adds the end-notes:

- A notes list is generated via getPerseusNotes() and passed to the template
- The template tag perseus_xml_to_epub_html5 takes the note number to start the note number accordingly for the given verse
- Note numbers are outputted after the verse
- Notes are printed after the chapter is outputted
