Tried:

1. Calling the original function in the done() call (asynchronously)
2. Not calling the original function
3. Calling the original function synchronously (and returning result)
4. Calling the original function synchronously (and not returning result)
5. Not calling the original at all
6. Hooking the submit function
 1. This makes the next button not work at all
7. Hooking the body.submit
8. Removing the handler altogether

9. Removing the entire secure password handler
 1. The secure password handlers doesn't appear to be the cause
10. Restoring the original page
