

Website Monitoring - Feature #2607

Custom Header Support

03/03/2020 02:24 PM - Marco Irmer

Status:	New	Start date:	03/03/2020
Priority:	Normal	Due date:
Assignee:		% Done:	0%
Category:		Estimated time:	0.00 hour
Target version:
Description Sometimes it's necessary to add custom headers to an HTTP request to obtain the desired response. One example is when individual nodes in an application cluster are monitored, a HOST header may be expected by those nodes and they will only return the desired response if the HOST header is present. There are other scenarios where custom headers can be useful in enterprise environments and the ability to specify customer headers when creating inputs would be much appreciated.			