

Lookup Editor - Bug #2870

Import sometimes imports cells with numbers as "NaN" when the value starts with a number and includes a letter

04/29/2021 06:26 PM - Luke Murphey

|                                                                                             |              |                        |            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|------------------------|------------|
| Status:                                                                              | New          | Start date:     | 04/29/2021 |
| Priority:                                                                            | Normal       | Due date:       |            |
| Assignee:                                                                            | Luke Murphey | % Done:         | 0%         |
| Category:                                                                            |              | Estimated time: | 0.00 hour  |
| Target version:                                                                      | 3.4.7        |                        |            |
| Description                                                                          |              |                        |            |
| This is what the customer said:                                                             |              |                        |            |
| "I imported the lookup file using the app Lookup Editor.                                    |              |                        |            |
| The record of the column whose column name is only numbers was NaN.                         |              |                        |            |
| (Normal values are values such as 1A or 4A etc, but those values are all NaN after import)" |              |                        |            |