History

#1 - 12/01/2012 08:24 AM - Luke Murphey

Filtering undeclared divisions made the TOC look closer to what is expected. However, a couple of issues were noted:

1. There are several sections with the title "none" (such as under Δημοδόκου)
2. Some of the sub-sections are missing. Like those under Κλεοβουλου:

*Κλεοβουλου ** section 1 ** έπιγραμμα και Αϊνιγμα

- % Done changed from 0 to 20

#3 - 12/01/2012 08:42 AM - Luke Murphey

The sections with "none" come from divisions that literally say "none":

<div1 type="text" id="tlg-0245"><head>*dhmodo/kou</head>

<div2 type="section"><!--testimonia-->
<head><bibl><foreign lang="en">NONE</foreign></bibl></head></div2>

<div2 type="section"><!--fragments--><head>*) elegei/wn</head>

<div3 type="elegiac" n="1">

/title> 1151 a 5</bibl></cit>
</div3>

What is odd is that the section titled "*)ελεγει/ων" is skipped though it is also a section. The content of the "none" section is the contents of section 3:

ὅτι μὲν οὖν κακία ἢ ἀκρασία οὐκ ἔστι, φανερόν. ἀλλὰ πῆ ἴσως: τὸ μὲν γὰρ παρὰ προαίρεσιν τὸ δὲ κατὰ προαίρεσίν ἐστιν. οὐ μὴν ἀλλ' ὁμοίον γε κατὰ τὰς πράξεις ὥσπερ τὸ Δημοδόκου εἰς Μιλησίους:

I think the "none" sections are only shown on the TOC because they have no chapters and are thus not considered readable units.

#5 - 12/01/2012 08:44 AM - Luke Murphey

Actually, the "NONE" units are shown in Perseus. The other readable units are as well:

- Δημοδοκου
  - NONE
  - ἐλεγείων
  - τετραμετρῶν

Not showing the sections under the divisions may be a blessing. You can always view them by clicking through the sections in the paginator. The problem is that I need a way to detect divisions that have no verses in them and flag them so that they can be filtered.
